WINNIPEG, Oct. 14.

For the Carwith stakes at Newmarket on Tuesday Lord Rodney's Hammerwood came in first, Barclay's Bonito second and Sumner's Carlton third. There were twenty three starters.

All work stands still on the Red River line. The Government have issued treasury bonds to the amount of three hundred thousand dollars. The denominations are fifty, one hundred and five hundred dollars, which they are offering at par. Five hundred dollars only were taken yesterday, but it is thought eastern capitalists will take a considerable amount. The interest is placed at six per cent.

The Ottawa Board of Trade is defunct, the members failing to pay up.

Last rites of the Church have been administered to Senator Senechal, and his death is expected very shortly.

The Canadian election was declared void, with the vote of the case to the petitioner. Sir Charles Tupper will again be a candidate.

The banquet given to Cardinal Taché on at the Hotel House, Toronto was decidedly unique. Hon. Frank Smith presided.

The North West Central railway will probably be completed to Rapid City this fall.

The Dominion injunction cases have been argued in Winnipeg, and judgment received.

Ryan & Haney, contractors for the Red River Valley Railway, have abandoned the contract, but the Government are making other arrangements and are confident the road will be completed this fall.

The Hudson's Bay Road will be extended to include further this season.

Use Clark's Vegetable Antibilious and Liver Pills.

His Lordship Bishop Grandin, who is at present visiting the different parishes under his lordship's charge, arrived here on Tuesday. On Thursday he held a confirmation in St. Ann's church, after which he went out to the Duck Lake and other parishes in that vicinity. His Lordship will leave there for Idle Lake and thence to Haindrie lake, if the season will admit, and will return home by way of Cumberland on the Saskatchewan.

Mr. L. Schmidt and Inspector Cook left town on the first inst., since when they have been visiting through the French settlements as far as Haindrie. They were astonished to see the progress that has been made in these settlements, say that wherever crops had been planted a glorious harvest has been reaped. Mr. Schmidt tells us that Toussaint Louche, of Carlton, has a most elegant crop—the largest and finest he has seen in his travels—on a large island that he was in a quantity as to where he would store it.

Farmers wishing to procure Black Sea wheat "Saskatchewan" can do so by applying to the secretary of the Lorne Agricultural Society, before October 15th. It opens 14 days earlier than Red Eye.

Threshing has commenced, and now the hum of the busy threshing machines can be heard throughout the length and breadth of the land as they turn out countless thousands of bushels of magnificent grain, making the heart of the happy farmer glad.

As may be seen by advertisement and posters, the N.W.M. Police in this district are requiring a considerable amount of grain and other supplies. This will give a number of our local farmers a much needed opportunity to dispose of some of the surplus produce of their unusually large harvest.

A party of our citizens, consisting of Messrs. T. N. Campbell, F. C. Baker and J. L. Johnson left Wednesday for a week's camping at Carrot River. The game, which we are informed are very plentiful in that neighborhood, we have no doubt will suffer severely by the time those gentlemen are through with them.

It is proposed to hold a convention of publishers of weekly newspapers in Manitoba and the North West, about the middle of next month, with the object of forming a press association and the discussion of matters affecting the welfare of weekly newspapers. Some central point will be chosen for holding the convention.

NEW YORK.

FRIDAY, OCT. 14, 1887.

Interest in the yacht race continues. The old country yachts are probably built for solidity and safety rather than for beauty and speed. In the old country there is such a long coast line and yachting is such a popular pastime that one would naturally expect that the English and Scotch yachts would be the finest in the world. Possibly they are, as far as safety is concerned, but in the matter of speed it is evident that the sharp Yankees are too much for their trans-Atlantic competitors and that in the building of swift yachts the latter have still something to learn. The sympathy of British people everywhere was with the Scotch yacht, but sympathy did not avail to fill her sail or wait her on to victory. The American people are greatly pleased with the result so far.

Mr. Norquay, it is now admitted, has failed to raise money for the Red River Railway in New York, and we cannot believe that he will succeed anywhere else. The Act having been disallowed by the Dominion Government, a shadow rests upon the security, which practically deprives it of all negotiable value. Whether the disallowance be legal or illegal, is of no moment; it is enough that it has been made to frighten capitalists from investing in what may not be recoverable at law. This is in reality the crux of the question: while Manitoba is acting illegally the money will not be forthcoming from outside capitalists. The only alternative seems to be for the Manitobans themselves to find the money, and the question will then force itself into prominence whether a province containing a hundred thousand inhabitants only can expect to make another railway pay. The population is a small one and to the outside world would appear to have a quite liberal enough extent of railway mileage already.

It is gratifying to learn that the Indian farmers in the Northwest have done well this year. It has been said so often that it was impossible to civilize the Indians that people had begun to accept the statement as true. It is not to be expected that the noble red man will lay down his bow and arrow and take the plough with perfect composure. A white man could not be expected to quit the plough with a light heart and go out and make his living with bow and arrow. But by the aid of the Indian farm instructors sent out by the Government the red men are being taught to till the ground and look after themselves. It is pretty hard for the survivors of the race to have to look about them and feel that in a few short years there will be none of them left to tell the tale. Their race is nearly run. Once they roamed the boundless prairie at their own sweet will, but the white man came and his civilization is slowly driving them in the direction of the setting sun. The red man is not all that the novelist has painted him, but before he acquired the vices of the white man he had many noble traits. He cannot honestly say that he has much to thank civilization for. The disappearance of his race before that of the white man is a marked instance of the survival of the fittest. How the words of the poet come back where he says, "Lo, the poor Indian, whose untutored mind clothes him in front and leaves him bare otherwise."—Telegram.

The Week says the growth of Manitoba is disappointing; the population ought to be much larger; and if the fault lies in Government policy or C. P. R. policy, the obstacle must be removed. The older provinces would help Manitoba willingly if they could see plainly that she needs help. No doubt it should be a leading principle of Dominion policy to let each province work out its own career in the way that suits its best; and if Manitoba so ardently desires access to markets in the United States—if she considers this to be essential to her prosperity, it must be a very serious consideration that will warrant the older provinces in obstructing her. It must be borne in mind, however, that the population of Manitoba is only some one-fortieth part of the population of the whole Dominion; and if the welfare of the Dominion and the safety of the C. P. R. are considered to be in any measure bound up together, it is not reasonable to expect that so insignificant a numerical minority, threatening the one and therefore the other, shall be allowed to prevail in a sectional strife against the nation. But some compromise ought to be found. This quarrel and turmoil cannot be good for the Province or the Dominion. As a correspondent says:—"If the proportion of benefit is likely to be greater than the proportion of injury, the plain duty of the Government is not to prevent it (the railway) being built." This is a common sense view of the situation that we hope may be acted on. Let a balance be struck, and with a little give and take on each side, an arrangement that will commend itself to the whole country may soon be arrived at.

If one were to believe the statements of the Chicago anarchists one would think that they are the most absurd set of men that ever lived. They seem to forget that they actually killed six men and would some sixty more; that they were the attacking party and that the work of slaughter was carried out in the precise manner and on the same line that they had been urging their followers to adopt. After perpetrating this villainy they have the audacity to pose as martyrs and to appeal to the public for justice. If they had the justice that they advocated, they would have all been hanged long ago.

Mr. H. Walters, of Walters & Baker, returned home from the east last week. During his absence, Mr. Walters was married to one of his wife's most popular young ladies, Miss Lister. We tender our congratulations, and wish the young couple every happiness in their journey through life.

The grading of our streets still continues and will be a great improvement and benefit to the town. The work on the government road is also progressing and is beginning to present a respectable appearance and has now the look of a street. We think our town fathers deserve the congratulations of our citizens for the improvements they have already made.

At Brandon the surveying party for the location of the Northwest Central has begun work under Secretariat for the company, and Forest for contractor McDonald and Sproule. The C.P.R. bridge there will be used for the present. The road will run to Rapid City, thence fifty miles, and will be in operation by Christmas. The people are greatly pleased with the prospect of getting the road.

TERRITORIAL NEWS

REGINA.

From the Leader, Sept. 27.

Wagon loads of citrons have been brought in and sold at from three to seven cents a pound.

Nearly fifty delegates have signified their willingness to attend the Agricultural Convention and many more are expected to respond favorably.

Sheriff Beck, of Fergus County, was the man who had the pleasure of getting his grip on Messrs. Gandy and Racette and he is entitled to the reward of $500 offered for their capture.

From the Journal, Sept. 29.

The large prizes offered by the Assiniboia Agricultural Society, are attracting attention, and at points east and west on the line, the prize exhibits will be brought to the show here.

Five hundred dollars worth of this year's hay from the pot and Muscowepang's Reserves have been already delivered at the barracks. A moiety of each load goes to the Indian Department towards defraying the cost of wagons and implements by the Government.

It is rumored that Dr. Dodd is to be removed permanently to the barracks to act as Mounted Police surgeon. The doctor is a genial fellow, and a man of much experience in his profession, and while we should be sorry to lose him from town, we think the appointment would be a wise one.

Mr. D. L. Scott, Q.C., arrived home from Port Benton on Monday morning. The prisoners held there for the murder of McLeish had been given a preliminary trial, and the evidence produced by the two witnesses taken from Wolsley by Mr. Scott was so conclusive that the judge recommended the extradition of the prisoners. As soon as the necessary papers are returned from Washington the American authorities will hand over the prisoners, who will be lodged in the jail at Regina. Their trial will take place in Eastern Assiniboia, in which district the murder was committed.

EDMONTON.

From the Bulletin, Sept. 17.

R. Scord has lumber on the ground for a dwelling on the lot in rear of the post office.

The District of Alberta has been constituted the Church of England diocese of Calgary.

Geo. Long, of the Sturgeon, shows an excellent sample of red life wheat, of which he has five acres entirely unharmed by frost.

Work is being pushed on the Alberta Insular company's mill at R. D. four, giving employment to the settlers in the vicinity.

D. Ross of the Edmonton Hotel has marketed peas from the second blossoming of the vines this season, the peas of which measure five inches in length and are well filled.

The McLaughlin orphanage and training school at Morley, Alberta, has now nineteen pupils, ten boys and nine girls. The orphanage is under the control of the Methodist church.

E. G. Hutchings lately cut a field of oats so tall that the horses and self-riders could not be seen over the top of the grain and requiring 4 1/2 lbs. of twine to tie one to bind. At one time he intended to cut it down for green feed, but now thinks it will yield hundreds of bushels of good grain to the acre.

LETHBRIDGE.

From the News Sept. 28.

Work has been commenced on the new Presbyterian manse. The foundation, such as of stone, has been laid, and the contractor is only waiting for the lumber to arrive to proceed with the work.

The fall round-up started out from here last week to gather the cattle on the ranges in this district. The following outfit was represented: W. G. Conrad, O. S. Main, Cypress Cattle Company, W. H. Sains, F. G. Baker & Co., and Joe Packer.

As will be seen in our advertising columns, a number of carpenters are working on the new buildings erected at the barracks. Work on these and on improvements as soon as the lumber and material can be procured.

At C. E. Jones, late competitor of N. D. & P. Jones, passed through here yesterday in his motor.

Mr. Geo. Callaghan came down from Macleod on Saturday's coach and will for a time fill the vacancy in I. G. Baker's store caused by the resignation of Mr. W. Campbell, who leaves for California in a short time.

Col. and Mrs. Macleod arrived from Banff, where they have been spending the last week or so, on Monday evening's train. They went on to Macleod on yesterday's coach.

MACLEOD.

From the Gazette, Sept. 27.

The fall round-up is going on in the Willow Creek district. It begins at Pincher's Creek on the first of October.

A party of policemen were on duty Sunday night looking for whiskey. They did not succeed in getting any.

Another Roman Catholic Bishop is shortly to be appointed to assist His Lordship Bishop Grandin. It is not known as yet who the new Bishop will be.

Macleod is at last to have a saw mill.

Mr. Lees is in town superintending the preparations for it. The boom was being put in yesterday.

On Saturday last the Gazette office was on several occasions full of Indians who were particularly interested in the work of the press. Bull Shield, a minor chief of the Bloods, examined everything very minutely. Asked what he thought of the whole thing, he said he thought that the whites had the best of the Indians. The editor of this paper has given the Indians a standing order to go out and run a newspaper for them on the Blood Reserve.

The quarantine on the border is in full force. The regulations are in brief as follows: Horses, mules, sheep and hogs are to be inspected on the frontier, and if found healthy, can be admitted at once. Cattle are inspected, and if found sound, are put in quarantine for 90 days. If they are unsound, they are not allowed even to come into quarantine, and must be kept out of the country. A quarantine office will be at the line, where arrangements are being made to keep a party permanently.

ORDINATION SERVICE.

Sunday last the Bishop of Saskatchewan held his first ordination in the church of the Redeemer, Calgary, when the Rev. R. Hilton, of Macleod, was advanced to the priesthood, and Mr. H. W. Gibson, Stockton, of the Blackfoot Reserve, Gleichen, was admitted to the diaconate.

The day was a lovely one. At half-past 9, morning prayers were read by the Rev. R. Hilton, His Lordship the Bishop pronouncing the absolution, and Mr. Gibson Stockton reading the lessons. At 11 o'clock the ordination service began with a hymn, during the singing of which the Bishop, clergy and congregation took their places. At the close of the hymn, the ordination sermon was preached by the Rev. J. W. Tins, C. M. S. missionary to the Blackfoot Indians, from Acts xx, 28: "Take heed, therefore, unto yourselves, and to all the flock over which the Holy Ghost hath made you overseers, to feed the church which He hath purchased with his own blood." In his concluding remarks the preacher pointed out how the Church of England was recognizing the two-fold aspect of the work she had to do in nourishing the children and preaching the Gospel to the heathen by sending forth one laborer to the settlers of Macleod, and another to the heathen Blackfoot.

After the sermon the Bishop took his seat at the steps of the chancel, and the Rev. E. Paske Smith, as examining chaplain, presented the candidates to his Lordship. Then came the beautiful (many service, read by the Bishop, after which he returned to the Holy Table and proceeded with the ante-communion service, the epistle being read by the Rev. E. P. Smith. His Lordship again took his seat at the chancel step, and after examining the candidates as to their belief called of God to the work of the ministry, and their unfeigned belief in the Holy Scriptures, proceeded to ordain Mr. Gibson Stockton to the diaconate by the laying on of hands, after which the newly ordained deacon read the Gospel from the chancel steps. Next followed the ordination of the Rev. R. Hilton to the priesthood by the laying on of the Bishop's hands, assisted, as customary, by the priests present.

The communion service then proceeded with, when the candidates and a number of their friends took together the sacrament of the Lord's supper. —The Calgary Weekly Herald.

SUPREME COURT.

A sitting of the Supreme Court was opened here on Tuesday last, the first under the laws and procedure lately instituted by the Federal and Local Governments. A number of cases not disposed of under the old procedure and of long standing were brought under the new order of things and finally heard. His Lordship, the Hon. Mr. Justice McCreary, who presided over the court, intimated that in future he would require of counsel a strict observance of the practice and procedure of the courts. There was in some of the cases a lot of strange theories put forward backed by some evidence of which quantity was more a feature than quality. At the opening of the court, as is usual in such occasions, the following address was read by Mr. W. V. Macdonald, from the bar in His Lordship, on this the first occasion of his holding a general court here. It was an impressive oration, the members of the bar appearing for the first time in proper costume, and standing while the address was read. It was as follows:

To THE HONORABLE MR. JUSTICE McCREARY:

May it please your Lordship,

The members of the Bar practising in your judicial District beg to offer their congratulations upon your elevation to the Bench of the North West Territories. The court to your jurisdiction is one of the most important, having been organized in the year 1874, when the Supreme Court now the Honorable Mr. Justice McCreary, succeeded by the Honorable Mr. Justice Gowan in 1883, and since the other judicial districts were still under British rule, the courts in Saskatchewan District were organized and had their local bars. We have been as a great disadvantage in the past owing to the need of a resident judge at Prince Albert now happily supplied.

The relations of the Bench and Bar in this district have been in the past, and we are confident will be for the future, of the most cordial character.

The eminent position your Lordship had attained at the Bar before your appointment is a guarantee that the honest efforts of practical men before your Lordship will be kindly appreciated and encouraged.

We wish your Lordship a long and pleasant career as Judge of this District.

WILLIAM V. MACDONALD,
WM. EDWARD GUNN,
STEWART GOSWELL,
JAS. MCKAY,
H. W. NEWLANDS,
ARTHUR L. SIDGON.

His Lordship replied in an eloquent and expressive manner.

This is the first court in which the new Sheriff and Clerk officiated.

The following were the cases tried and heard:

Cook vs. McKay—Action of replevin, in which the plaintiff claimed an animal in the possession of the defendant in February, 1887. There were a large number of witnesses on both sides. Judgment was given for the plaintiff. Macdonald for plaintiff; Gunn and J. McKay for defendant.

Miller vs. Porter—Action on a contract. Verdict for plaintiff. Macdonald for plaintiff; Sifton and Gunn for defendant.

Cameron vs. McKay—Action brought to obtain an account. The evidence on both sides was long. Judgment reserved. Newlands for plaintiff; Gunn and J. McKay for defendant.

Ibester vs. McKay—Action on a contract signed by defendant, who pleaded payment and that action was barred by limitation of time. Verdict for plaintiff for $125 and costs. Macdonald for plaintiff; Brewster & McKay for defendant.

Dilworth vs. Agnew—Action of replevin of a horse. A great deal of interest was taken in this case, owing to the fact that His Lordship obtained the assistance of a jury in the trial, who took most of the afternoon and part of the night to render a verdict that the plaintiff should succeed but each party should pay his own costs. Sifton for plaintiff; Newlands for defendant.

Porter vs. Miller—Action of a replevin bond. Judgment was reserved for the plaintiff and costs of practice raised. Sifton and Gunn for plaintiff; Macdonald for defendant.

Macdonald & Koon vs. Agnew—Action against an endorser of a promissory note for $25. The defendant contended that $25 had been paid on the note by the maker, and that the balance had been tendered. Verdict for plaintiff, $17 and costs. Newlands for plaintiff; Macdonald for defendant.

Macdonald vs. Nolin—Action on account. Judgment reserved. Sifton for plaintiff; Newlands for defendant.

Monkman vs. Monkman—Action on account. Judgment reserved. Sifton for plaintiff; Brewster & McKay for defendant.

Nolin vs. Tarroette—Action for the price of certain improvements on land. Verdict for plaintiff. Newlands for plaintiff; Sifton for defendant.

McKay vs. Cromarty—Action undertaken for services rendered. Verdict for plaintiff, $79.50 and costs. Macdonald for plaintiff.

Davis vs. Thompson—Action on an account, part of which defendant disputed and to the whole set up a large counter claim for damages, which were considered too remote, and judgment was given for plaintiff for full amount claimed, and counter claim disallowed. Macdonald for plaintiff; Brewster & McKay for defendant.

Buckley, appellant, vs. Doyle, respondent—Appeal to the judge from a conviction by C. F. Young, J. P., in the latter part of November, 1886. Counsel for appellant asked to have conviction quashed as void on its face. Granted. Macdonald for appellant; Brewster & McKay for respondent.

Queen vs. Matheson—This was a criminal case captured last court, the charge being that he had feloniously killed a steer, the property of Messrs. Moore & Macdonald. He pleaded not guilty, but was convicted upon confession of guilt, and sentenced to a month's imprisonment. Macdonald for the Crown; Newlands for the prisoner.

"SCRUB" CATTLE.

To the Editor of the Times.

SIR,—

In your issue of Sept. 23rd, I saw an article headed "Saskatoon," and which purports to be a report of the Central Saskatchewan Agricultural Society, in which the writer is pleased to call our cattle "scrubs." I will just call the attention of your readers to the fact that one of our "scrub" cows (Bell of Minto) won first prize at the Northern Exhibition held in Walkerton, Ont., in the fall of 1885; also at Palmerston, Hamilton and Estabrook. Also our bull (G. J. G. G.) won first prize in Lestowel and Palmerston in the fall of 1885, weighing 950 pounds at eleven months old. Also another cow (Zelind) won first prize as a yearling in Walkerton the same year, and it is generally admitted that Wellington produces very good to splendid stock.

I will insert an extract from a letter written up by Henry Wade, Secretary, Dominion Short Horn Breeders Association, dated, Toronto, August 29th, 1887, and leave it with your readers to judge whether they are "scrubs."

"Your cattle will all appear in some volume of the Dominion Herd Book. It was utterly impossible to have them all printed in the first volume. As you will see we have nothing in it but old cattle."

Then the writer goes on to applaud that admirable herd of "Jersey" shown by Mr. Smith, which proved to be thoroughbred Ayrshires, Mr. Smith, pointing their pedigrees. Again the writer says Mr. J. F. Clark of Clark's Crossing, who is also incorrect, as Cassel Bros. won 14 first and 5 second prizes, while Mr. Clark won 10 or 12, Cassel Bros. exhibit as our person.

I think your readers will see the whole state of this letter goes to show that it was written through sheer ignorance and malice.

CASWELL BROS.,
Saskatchewan P. O.

CORRECTION.

To the Editor of the Times.

In your issue of Sept. 26th, you state in a local and also to the minutes of the Town Council that the sum of $200 of fees paid by O. E. Hughes, Esq., M.N.W.C., was accepted by the council, for repairing government road. I beg leave to inform you that no such offer was made the council by Mr. Hughes, but that after being asked in writing by myself for help to repair the road, he wrote me in answer that he would do work to that amount on the government road. That after I brought before the Town Council at a regular meeting, and the grant, not offered, was accepted.
